RULES OF THE GAME

Today, you are trapped in this classroom. It is up to your team to escape. Complete these simple tasks so your team will be the first to look for the key. The key will be hidden within this classroom. As each group finishes, they will receive another clue to help the teams that are looking for the key.

Stay calm and ESCAPE!

Before you can move on to the next task, I HAVE TO CHECK YOUR WORK. Don't yell. Don't holler. Simply raise your hands and I will come. If a group finishes before you, be patient. I promise I will check your work.

SPORTS: FOOTBALL

Auburn fans celebrate on the field after the fifth-ranked Tigers toppled top-ranked Alabama in a stunning finish at the Iron Bowl (2014).

One member read this story of a fan to the team. Then fill in the blanks.

I was just at this lovely football game because my boyfriend wanted to come. He lovessss Auburn because his family lovessss Auburn. I'm not a big football fan. But during this game, the cro____d was WILD. Then, Auburn won!! My boyfriend was so happy. We were at about the 40 yard line (I think). The in____ident of Auburn winning filled the crowd with em____tion. And I lost my ____nd____v____dual thoughts and all of a sudden I was running along side my boyfriend onto the field! I'm not sure why I did that. Why did I run?

T-CHART: HISTORY VS PERSONAL

Your team is almost done.

This part seems easy, because it is. You have learned the definition of mob mentality and you've learned another word for mob. You've watched a video and looked at examples. We even related mob mentality to football. You will need two sticky notes. On the left side, write an example from history and give a very, very, brief explanation of the event. Then on the right side, your team needs to come up with an example of mob mentality that has happened in your life. If your team is the 5% that doesn't participate in mob mentality, then come up with an example where you have seen mob mentality occur (on tv, politics, your parents, etc.).

Don't repeat what another group wrote!
